

[Translator's notes are bracketed]

[Logo]

Committee for State Security
at the Council of Ministers of the USSR

June 11, 1968

#1372-A

Moscow

Classified

... 15850.../100-A/3

Attention: CC CPSU

For your information

Operational information available makes it clear that LITVINOV, GORBANEVSKAYA, YAKIR, and certain other like-minded individuals have prepared and are disseminating a document entitled "The Year for Human Rights in the Soviet Union" (copy enclosed herewith) that contains slanderous accounts of trials [over dissidents] in Moscow and Leningrad, along with summaries of letters and statements discrediting Soviet authorities.

(Signed) Andropov,

Chairman, Committee for State Security

[Follow illegible signatures and dates]

[Appendage]

THE YEAR FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE SOVIET UNION

Current Events

"Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers." (Article 19, The Universal Declaration of Human Rights.)

Issue I, April 30, 1968